Music & Worship:

Ant Lee & Howard Williams present 18 sessions

A mixture of theological teaching, question & answer sessions and practical demonstrations. This module will include song writing and band techniques (+ all that working with a team involves); Study of biblical approaches to worship (e.g. Micah 6:8) and leading worship in a variety of settings.

Creative Arts:

Alex & Amanda Brown present 18 sessions

A short theological overview of the place of creative arts in and out of church, practical advice and experience in drama, storytelling and creative movement. It kits out those who attend with a bank of warm-up games and sketches / dramas, including creative communication on radio, in churches, and in un-churched situations. It also gives those who attend experience in developing their own creative communication through doing exactly that as a part of the course. It is informative, interactive, practical and fun. Those who attend should be ready to participate in creative arts as a part of the course, but nothing scary, we promise!
